

HAVING FAITH IN SOUTHWARK

Monday November 16 2009

5.30pm to 8.30pm

London South Bank University
Keyworth Centre
Keyworth Street
SE1 6NG

A public conversation about faith premises chaired by the BBC's Jumoké Fashola. The evening will feature a panel and audience discussion on the challenges facing faith groups in their need for places of worship, as well as their contribution to the spiritual and civic life of communities. There will also be a performance by Korusol! The Southwark Community Choir.

Advance booking is advised as places are limited

To book a place or submit a question for the panel (to include faith leaders, local councillors, planning officials and consultants) contact Charlotte Beaumont on 020 7525 5502 or email charlotte.beaumont@southwark.gov.uk by November 9 2009

1, 2, 2A, 12, 45, 53, 63, 68A, 133, 171, 176, 188, 199,
344, 355 C10, P3, P5

Northern and Bakerloo line to Elephant and Castle, Jubilee line to Southwark - all within 10 minutes walk

In partnership with Southbank University,
Southwark Police,
Churches Together in South London,
Southwark Multi Faith Forum,
South Bermondsey Partnership,
The Willowbrook Centre,
Bermondsey & Rotherhithe Faith Area Network
Southwark for Jesus.

Refreshments will be served.

www.southwark.gov.uk